Many years ago there was a resort on every side of Pleasant Lake... Ferguson's, Heaton, Hahn's Casselius, and Shady Lawn. The resorts declined over the 40's and 50's until there was just one resort remaining, Shady Lawn.

If you heard music on Pleasant Lake on weekends you knew it was coming from Shady Lawn Resort on the Northeast side of Pleasant Lake. The stories shared about Shady Lawn covered many years of visitors and fun.

Our Shady Lawn story starts in 1949. Harry and Helen Hanson and Harry's brother, Howard and Avis purchased Shady Lawn from Herbert Dunn. Harry and Helen eventually bought the resort from his brother and they ran Shady Lawn until it was sold to Floyd and Lillian Ejsjornson in 1968. In 1990, Ferrell and Company purchased the property and built what we see today, Shady Lawn Condominiums.

"Life at the resort stories "were shared by Sheila Cordell (the daughter of Harry and Helen Hanson), as their family would leave their home in Minneapolis and spend the summer at the resort. Grandpa and grandma, Julia and Charlie Broberg, were the care-

Boat Parade a Fun-Filled 4th Tradition

The 4th of July boat parade (held the evening of the 3rd) was about 15 boats strong this year. The parade included many of the regular participants along with some newcomers who came with some fantastic themes. 1st place this year was taken by the Mader family (Igloo Cooler), 2nd place went to the Hogberg/Hinz/Logeais/Ahsenmacher crew (Giant Bath tub), and 3rd place went to the Nilsons (Pleasant Zoo).

Hopefully the parade will continue to be an annual event and grow in popularity, providing an opportunity for some friendly competition among those entered and entertainment for the spectators along the shore. After many years of coordinating the event (along with the help of the lake association board members) Dave & Penny Hogberg are looking for someone who would like to take over. Duties include creating a simple flyer for advertising, purchasing the trophies (the association funds this), arranging for judges (judges in the past

As we are all aware, aquatic weeds are more prevalent than anytime in at least my memory. The board has determined that it should seek expert guidance in learning how it should proceed with our clean water initiatives in the future. For the past several years we have invested in treating Curly Leaf Pondweed, both in the southwest bay and in the area around the County Park boat landing. While those two areas appear to be somewhat under control for the Curly Leaf, other areas are showing signs of Curly Leaf, and the lake in general is more weed infested.

Earlier inspections for Eurasian Milfoil have indicated that we do not have that problem—yet! Continued vigilance is needed. It appears that much of our weed expansion may be due to natural causes, such as weather; however, we must be concerned about runoff, both community and from our own property. The guidance we will be seeking should tell us the scope of the problem and advise us on how to attack it.

During 2014 our Association board of directors finally achieved its goal of attaining 501c3 status. That means that your contributions to the Association for the Clean Water Fund with your 2015 membership dues are now tax deductible. On that bright note, we have already received a substantial contribution to Clean Water Fund from an anonymous donor. That will go a long way in supporting the increased efforts we know we need to take.

Finally, your Association is led by a nine-member board of directors with staggered three-year terms. The board meets approximately every other month to conduct its business. All meeting minutes are posted on our website: www.pliamn.com. We encourage you to check the site frequently and to consider applying for one of two open seats on the board. If interested call John Sedey at 651-260-3033.

I hope your summer was a good one, and you got several opportunities to enjoy the lake. We are blessed with this wonderful asset and must do our part in preserving it.

Boat Parade

have been the Miss Annandale Queen candidates) and lining up a large pontoon/boat for the Judges to ride on. J & J Marine has always offered to provide the boat and driver.

takers, and stayed in the main cabin with the Hanson family. There were five other cabins that were rented out for the season. Visitors were from Minnesota, Iowa, and Missouri. It was like an extended family as the children waited for visitors and summer adventures.

The 50’s was the era of the jukebox, and the jukebox would go nonstop at Shady Lawn on weekends. Saturday nights were rocking with the local Annandale people as well as the resort visitors. The parking lot and the hill behind would be filled with cars as people brought their drink of choice and purchased set ups from the bar. Sheila chuckled when she told about some people taking their glasses to fill up with water in the bathroom rather than buying water with ice. Limbo contests were held, and a local resident, Jim Hart, was a consistent winner. Sheila said the floor was so packed with dancers that it would shake. Some Sundays they had old time music with Sam Clayton.

The Brobergs and Hanson’s took pride in keeping Shady Lawn very clean. Helen and Julia kept the cabins clean and Charlie worked on the grounds. Harry commuted back and forth from his job in Minneapolis every weekend. Closing Shady Lawn in the fall meant cleaning all the cabins and painting the floors so they would look good for next season. The hall would be cleared out and all the flat bottom boats would be placed inside the hall for winter storage. They would paint the bottoms of the boats and have them ready for spring as well.

Sheila told about all sorts of celebrations held at the resort. Dub and Judy Ferrell reminisced about the many nights they spent at Shady Lawn in the 50’s and 60’s. Ferrells, Jim and Sheila Cordell, and Julie and Rich Shoberg were three of many couples that hosted their wedding dances at Shady Lawn.

The Hanson family noticed a transition in the resort traffic in the early 60’s. The local bars took over with live bands and the jukebox lost its popularity. It seemed like the crowds got smaller, and the Hanson’s felt it was time to move on to a different adventure. They sold the resort in November 1968 to Floyd and Lillian Esjornson.

The resort continued and then changed hands a few times until July 12, 1990 when Ferrell Corporation purchased it with a plan to build a condominium complex. Mr. Ferrell had some interesting stories dealing with the plans for the resort with the Wright County planning and zoning, as this was the first condo association on any lake in Wright County. He chuckled at himself as he shared the story about the county fire departments and the DNR coming en masse to Shady Lawn. One afternoon he went out to look over the resort and decided to start bulldozing the cottages. He pushed most of the cottages in a pile, and then he decided to start a little fire. Dub found out quickly that the little fire caused quite a stir. The Ferrell’s chose to save part of the main building, and it was used in one of the condos that we see there today. The Shady Lawn Condominium Association, INC. was formed, lots were sold and the seven cabins built are what we see today, as we drive by the old Shady Lawn site.

There is a sadness that the lake resort era didn’t continue through the years, but time and lake value changed from the 40’s until today. Thanks to Julie Shoberg, Sheila Cordell, Darlene Lund and Dub and Judy Ferrell for their photos, abstracts, and the time they gave us to hear their stories. It is a gift to still be able to share some of the history of Pleasant Lake and to be able to hear the stories from the people involved in the resort era.
